

The Wisconsin do-not-call list should remain in place unless and until the Federal law can/will deliver the same level of consumer protection. When 80% of the residents of a state sign up it is time everyone realizes we do not want "telemarketing" including political telemarketing. It doesn't matter what any bank thinks! The Wisconsin list has been very effective - except, of course, that it doesn't include these canned political messages. Having received 27 of these in the last 5 days prior to the election (19 from Mr. Kerry) I would like very much to see this included in any law
